Additional Thanks:

Everyone at The Aquarium, everyone at RCA UK and BMG around the world, Clive Davis and everyone at Arista Records USA, Jack Rovner, Laurence Stevens, Joe Dyer, Cathy Hood and everyone at Partizan, Peter-John Vettese, David Field, Mike McCormack, Steven Howard, Ian Silvester, Ian Cooper, Robert Andrews, Paul Ward, Al Stone, Andy Stinson, Charles Bradbrook, Chucho Merchan, Keith Le Blanc, Pete Glennister, John Giblin, Mark Blagden, Tony Fernandez, Ima Ribalaiga Briones, Jose Obregon and Richard Harris.

This album contains a selection of songs I have been drawn to for all kinds of reasons. They were not chosen with any particular theme or concept in mind – the method was more instinct than design. The work undertaken was truly a labour of love for me and I feel privileged to have been given this opportunity.

My sincere thanks go once again to Steve and Heff who devoted so much of their talent and time to [help me] realise this dream. Also to Simon and Catri, and everyone at 19 Management who have been with me every step of the way. To Marius for laying down the foundations, and to Anne Dudley and all the musicians who played.

Dedicated to my family and friends with love and gratitude.

To the writers of these beautiful songs I offer my profound respect.
